Who I Am

Director and Story Architect with over 9 years of experience leading documentary, reality, and broadcast productions for regional and international platforms including Netflix, Al Jazeera, StarzPlay, and MBC.

Strong foundation in post-production enables precision in pacing, rhythm, and story architecture — ensuring cinematic storytelling aligned with broadcast standards.

What I Do

I lead visual storytelling across documentary, reality, and broadcast productions — shaping narrative structure, directing teams, and supervising post-production to deliver emotionally powerful stories that resonate across platforms.
